BASEBALL.

The Kamehamehas Ahead.

The ball game between the Kams and Hawaiis was very poorly attended. It is evident that people are getting disgusted after the "sell" of the Crescents. The Kams played an excellent game which is more than can be said for the Hawaiis. The game will probably be the last of this season as the Crescents have with drawn from the league. If a radical change in the behaviour of the young gamblers is not made, it will probably also be the last of the league.

Mr. Gonsalves & Co. have a card in another column. This old and highly respectable firm carries a fine stock of general merchandise and are importers of excellent wines. Their stock of soap calls the special attention of all housekeepers.

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. John Maguire leaves for his home on Hawaii tomorrow.

Mr. C. W. Ashford will be off for Maui tomorrow afternoon.

Bishop Gulstan has returned hither from his trip to Maui.

There are no passengers booked for the Warrimoo.

Mr. R. Spreckels arrived from Maui yesterday in the steamer Claudine.

Over 11,000 bags of sugar were brought to port here during the last forty-eight hours.

The Mokoli, Capt. McGregor, will sail for Molokai and Maui at 5 o'clock this p.m.

Judges Judd, Frear and Bickerton are enjoying their annual vacations.

Judge Cooper presides in Chambers during this, coming, week.

The Canadian and Australian steamer Warrimoo is due here tomorrow from Vancouver B. C.

L. J. Levey holds an auction sale of the household furniture of Mr. W. Maertens tomorrow at 10 a.m.

Col. Lee of the Volcano House reports that the territory of Madame Pele is "great shakes" at present.

"Oceanica" the new Hawaiian historical drama will be presented at the Opera House next Saturday evening.

The inter island steamers came to port here Saturday and Sunday crowded with passengers and well filled with freights.

A varied and valuable lot of furniture will be sold by J. F. Morgan at the residence of Mr. Ralph Foster on Nunanu street on Wednesday.

Overheard on the Philadelphia after dinner: "There's only one life between meself and the throne thash's Dole." — (moses.)

Justice Bickerton was the first one of the Supreme Court judges to advertise himself as "of the Supreme Court, Republic of Hawaii."

The attention of house-keepers, and the heads of all well regulated families, is called to the notice of J. F. Morgan in this issue. Read, digest, and be present to invest.

The bridal cabin of the steamer Mokoli has been placed, by the kindness of Capt. McGregor, at the disposal of "two hearts which now beat as one" on this evening's trip to Molokai.

Ehlers & Co. are addressing the ladies to day with new inducements and irresistible temptations. During this week the bargain sale will mostly be in the line of dress-goods, and the present prices are so that the superior stuff carried by the old firm is within the reach of everybody. Read, girls, what manager Gunn has to say in another column.

Mr. "Jack" Atkinson the popular promoter of rowing races and other "square" athletic sports has made a bicycle record by a ride to the Volcano of Kilauea from Hilo in four hours and ten minutes, carrying his wheel over a mile of the rough portion of the road.
Captain "Jack" Lee, well known here in Honolulu is in heaps of trouble with his crew and vessel, the bark Templar, at Callao Peru. Indications seem to point to a probable compulsory sale of the vessel to settle the wages of the crew and other debts incurred at that port.

Under the supervision of Mr. T. R. Lucas rapid progress is being made with the work of erecting the new brick store for Messrs. Allen and Robinson and now quickly assuming shape at the foot of Kaahumanu street. Captains Weir and Gihon made short work of the job of placing the iron pillars in position.

LADIES COLUMN.

You took our advice last week and have profited by our Hosiery offer, and we think are satisfied you have the best of the bargain. There are not many left, but there is go at our Cut Price.

All through this week your swilling faces will mean the Blues to us, as we see Bundle after Bundle of Victoria Lawns going out of the store at 75 cents for 10 yards—and Merrimac Prints at 50 cents for 10 yards—and Gingham, that are Gingham, 12 yards for $1—or Brown Cottons 16 yards for $1, can you blame us for having the Blues when you are carrying off goods at these prices? This thing goes on all the week.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, marks another day of Sacrifice so far as we are concerned. Colored Wool Dress Goods (all wool) you have paid us 75 cents for same Class of Goods. Now they are yours at 50 cents a yard. These goods are worth buying if you don't make them up for a year. They are all New Goods and Patterns.

SATURDAY, JULY 28, takes in everything, but the Remnant Buyers will have it all their own way. Every piece we have goes without reserve at your own prices—is a picnic for you, but we want the room for New Goods. Underwear is receiving our special attention, the mark down has been general all through our Stock, in fact the fundamental law of our house is to sell at a very small profit in every Department the days of fancy prices are over. Next week you will hear something to your interest.

Yours etc,

B. F. Ehlers & Co.

July 23-11

The Crescents and Hawaiis will, very probably, play next Saturday at the Recreation Grounds.

Mr. Milton F. Flood an experienced naturalist and taxidermist went forward to Molokai today by the Mokoli on a bird-hunting expedition.

It is surprising that the numerous temperance people don't take up "Hop Beer." It is, especially when iced, one of the most refreshing and thirst-quenching drinks ever introduced here. And it has the absolute advantage of being non-intoxicating. It is very similar to the best kind of home made beer as used in Europe and America. Mr. Brehnan on Bethel Street is the sole manufacturer.

The Club Stables under the present management have gained a higher standing than any other livery stables in town. The finest turn outs, and safest horses, and the most reasonable terms are to be found there. A party of gentlemen were obliged to go across the Pali on important business last Friday. Not wishing to go on horseback they hired a span from the Club Stables and when they returned over the Pali yesterday the horses had not alone carried them through their perilous journey but looked as fresh and in as good a condition as ever before. Patronize the Club Stables if you want good service.

Band Concert.

There will be an open air public concert, this evening by the band, at Emma Square. The concert will commence at 7:30 o'clock and will continue until about 9:45 o'clock with an intermission between. Following is the programme:

1. Overture—"Rubensal"—Flotow
2. Cornet Solo—"Love and Truth"—Selling
3. Fantasia—"The Princess Air"—Mr. Charles Kewster.
4. Selection—"Il Bravo"—Mercadante
5. Quadrille—"Madame Angot"—Lecocq
6. March—"The U. S. S. Philadel"—March
7. "Serpentine Dance"—Benger
8. Galop—"Wally"—Gillet

"Hawaii Ponoi."

The British ship, Shandon, Captain Harris, from Calcutta India, for San Francisco arrived off port here yesterday, short of provisions. Captain Harris reports being 132 days out and is laden with a general cargo consigned to J. D. Spreckels & Bro. After obtaining the desired supply of food the vessel will proceed on her way.
